“ My granddaddy was a wonderful, loving man who I looked up to so much. He has inspired me through the years to pursue photography as my own passion as it was always his. He was behind the lens through many years worth of family portraits and holiday group pictures of the family. My favorite memory of granddaddy was watching him edit photos and looking at all his cool photography stuff. I also remember doing photo sessions with him and, of course, as a kid, I would get tired and be ready for him to be done taking pictures of me 😭. But I would go back to that in a heartbeat. I love granddaddy very much and he will be missed like crazy.
