“ Harriet was a dear friend since our early 20's. We shared many happy family occasions & even worked together for years. She was always there to help with children's parties & share holidays. I will miss her until we are all together again with our heavenly father. Memories of our times together are reflected in so many pictures. God needed another angel when he came for Harriet.

“ Harriet's love of life, family and friends was never tainted, always pure and whole. She saw the best in everyone and didn't hesitate to let them know it. Although I saw her seldom during the past decade, I think of her and Hersch often. Harriet, you are missed already.
