“ Harriet and I are first cousins. Some of my earliest childhood memories are when my parents (John and Tempie Bullington), my brother Bill, and I, from Cookeville TN, would go to visit Harriet's family in Lebanon, or they would visit us, or we would see them at our grandparents' (James O and Elizabeth Hazard) home in Nashville. These were always very pleasant and fun visits, when we cousins got together. Harriet was the oldest and could have ignored or given the rest of us a hard time, but she was always very friendly, fun, welcoming and kind to all of us. I have always thought of Harriet as one of the sweetest, kindest, finest people I have ever had the honor to know.
