

Helen Faye Cherry

September 16, 1940 - November 21, 2020

Mrs. Faye Harber Cherry, age 80, of Centerville, passed away in her home on November 21, 2020.

She was born on September 16, 1940 to Clovis and Emma Alderson Harber. She was preceded in death by her parents and her brother Jimmy Harber.

She is survived by her husband of 58 years, Bob Cherry; her daughters, Leah (Scott) Owens and Robin (Eric) DeVault; and her grandchildren, Madelyn and Lilly Owens and Emma DeVault.

Mrs. Cherry graduated from Hickman County High School and obtained a degree in education from Tennessee Tech and her masters degree from Tennessee State University. She worked as a teacher for over 20 years in the Hickman County School System and was a member of the Hickman County Retired Teachers Association. She was also a lifelong member of Centerville United Methodist Church.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that people make donations in memory of Mrs. Cherry to the Centerville United Methodist Church Heritage Scholarship Fund.

“ As chair of the social studies department at Hickman County High School, Faye was my mentor. She understood the purpose of teaching history, and through that purpose, she served our school and community well. She also had a good sense of humor, which I appreciated. Her influence will continue to be positive and long lasting for generations to come.
