“ Hilda was a very dear friend of mine and my daughter. She would come visit me and share things. We also had good laughs. She loved my cat Zeus, he would come running out of his bed whenever he heard Hilda’s voice. The last time Hilda came to see us, we were talking and I told her she needed to go to the doctor and she fell asleep in my one recliner. Zeus went over and climbed up by her legs and smelled around and then got down and went to the side of the chair where Hilda’s head was leaning and licked her check. It startled Hilda and then I told her it was her buddy checking on her, she smiled and laughed then. This was the Monday before she went in the hospital, love you so much Hilda
