“ Granny James gave me much of her material to give to a sewing ministry at my church in TX and to send for our children in Sam Place Orphanage for the Deaf in Kenya. She and my mom along with the Pinewood quilting club loved to quilt and made many beautiful quilts. She had a beautiful smile and loving heart. She left a wonderful family who has the same loving heart as she. The quilting club is in Heaven making quilts of gold. Great memories.

“ Evelyn was an integral part of the James family for over forty years. She was a blessing to our father and eventually led him to be baptized in Christ. Evelyn experienced a lot of hardships in her life but she maintained a kind and loving spirit. May we remember her dinners, especially the sweet corn, cornbread, and the white beans that she called “whistleberries”. Evelyn will be missed.
