“ I loved Ida as my other mother when I was a child. She and Charlie were friends of my parents.

“ I met Ida thru my family on visits to Coble. She was always cheerful and made the best hummingbird cake. We met her a couple of times when she vacationed in Daytona. She really loved the beach.

“ So very sorry to read of Ida’s passing. Such a beautiful lady, friend, and delicious cook! Once she moved to West Swan Street, she would often come by with goodies she had made, or call & have me stop by after work for “a little leftover to enjoy”. Such a lover of beauty... and her yard was always “alive” wut beautiful blooms. She always showed gratitude and love . What a beautiful spirit.
