

J Wallace Webb

February 23, 1929 - September 3, 2022

J. Wallace Webb was born on February 23, 1929, in Algood, Tennessee, and spent most of his life living in Alaska. He passed away on September 3, 2022, in Livingston, Tennessee. He was 93 years old.

He was the son of the late Morris Webb and Ethel Lee Rittenberry Webb.

He was brother to his 2 siblings Mildred Burnette, and Morris Webb Jr.

He is preceded in death by his loving wife of 71 years Mary Emma Green Webb.

He is survived by daughter Charlotte Marie Foley of Eagle River, Alaska; son J. Wallace Webb Jr. of Cookeville, Tennessee; son-in-law Brent D. Foley of Eagle River, Alaska; grandchildren Brent D. Foley Jr. and Angela M. Foley; great-grandchildren Mitch C. Foley, Quinton J. Foley, and Aidan B. Foley; Several nieces and nephews. Along with many other relatives, friends, and loved ones.

Mr. Webb spent most of his work-life in the Armed Services; Marine Corps, and Air Force which eventually took him to Alaska, the Air National Guard, and Civil Service.

He loved traveling the highway between Alaska and Tennessee. Making 60+ trips over his lifetime. He also loved buying and selling cars, Western TV, and movies, fishing in Alaska, playing cards, and dreaming of making it big someday in Las Vegas. However, his favorite thing to do was to sing Karaoke.
