“ It saddened me when I heard the news. I didn't know Jacob all that well, but from watching him around people and with a couple of small conversation with him in high school, I admired how he was utterly himself. He had a sense of humor and knew a good amount of facts on past wars, and loved the art program in school. And in his pursuit of being himself, he gave everyone joy and the freedom to be themselves. I send my love to the friends and family that are going through their hard time. I'd like to say he will never be forgotten. He lives on and his memory will forever be cherished. Rest easy Jacob.

“ Jacob never failed to make me laugh. He was a genuine spirit and a wonderful friend. He never made me feel less than or a burden. He would pick me up after school and we would just ride backroads and listen to his new music. The world got a little dimmer knowing I’ll never hear his laugh or his voice in person again. The memories will hold me over but I can’t wait to chill with you again one day!❤️

“ Loved Jacob's super sharp wit and hilarious sarcasm. He always went out of his way to speak to me. Polite, respectful, and well mannered is the only way I can describe him. Thank you for that, kiddo. Rest easy, young man.

“ I am one of Jacob’s high school theatre teachers. I’ll never forget that on the Friday evening performance of The Curious Savage. There was a football game going on outside and in the middle of a very climactic scene, there was a silence before Jacob’s next line. In that silence, we could hear the sound of the marching band performing the halftime show. Instead of saying his line, Jacob acknowledged the noise and said “Is there a parade outside?” The whole auditorium busted out in laughter and the actors on stage struggled to keep a straight face through the whole thing. It is one of my favorite memories of Jacob and his spirit.

“ Love you brother! Met you in elementary school, you lived across the street from me for years, went to middle and high school together, JROTC, raiders, military balls, video games after school. Working construction and security together. Basically lived with me at my cabin when i moved back to Tn. Then my apartment later haha. helped me turn my little piece of land from woods into an awesome piece hangout spot. From the shooting range and airsoft field, the all the ponds we fished, campsites, water falls and backroads to ride. Just not the same out here anymore brother, can't believe you're gone. I talked to you in person the day you left. Last we spoke in person was a hug and told each other we loved one another. Texted several times during the day and nothing seemed wrong, i went to sleep and woke up devastated. Love ya man
