“ So many memories of Bruce and all the Bowen family. My dad taught welding in high school and Bruce was one of his students and from then on he became a part of our family. Bruce was a brother I never had and loved him dearly. May God place his hands upon all the family to give them peace and comfort and know that Bruce was well know and loved. Bruce was ONE in a MILLION.

“ Karen, Wendy and the entire Bowen family. We have had the pleasure of knowing Bruce through our school years, pretty much our entire lives. He was always such fun to be around. He was a good guy and we loved his laugh. Bruce will be greatly missed. We pray you will find peace and comfort in the coming days and we love you all!
