“ He will always be my jimbo. He was such a big part of my childhood memories. I to this day still reading comic books and have a love for star trek and star wars. I will always cherish memories of him taking me to the park and superb collectibles on Bardstown rd. Even taking me to see my first movie in theaters. He took me to see both Ghostbusters and the original batman with Michael Keaton. I will never forget how much he did for me. He was dealt a different hand but Red said it best. He was deeply loved and will certainly be missed by anyone that truly new him. Anthony Ramey

“ Nobody who truly knew this man is better off without him in their daily lives. He was so loved; more than I believe he ever knew himself. I know for his son and this little brother, there’s a hole that will never be filled, and hurt that will ease after time, but never fully heal. I love you Bro, and I miss you dearly. I pray that you have found the happiness that evaded you for many years here on Earth.
