“ Uncle Jim was one of the greatest men of all times. He was full of life and his storytelling kept us all captivated. We have laughed, loved and lost, but the greatest of these was and still is "love"! Uncle Jim loved with everything inside of him. He was one of a kind and is going to be missed greatly. We do not mourn for him though, we mourn for our loss of him.....he is in the presence of the Father! He has ran his race and fought the good fight!
Well done, Uncle Jim! Well done! One day we will see you again.

I love you, Delana

“Pawpaw Jim” will always hold a special place in my family’s heart. He had nicknames for my children and was always welcoming and loving to those around him. He was a true example of Christ’s love. I know his passing will leave a void in the hearts of his family, but may the Lord wrap his arms around them all.
