

James Claude Love

June 26, 1939 - September 9, 2021

Funeral services for James Claude Love will take place on Monday 20, 2021 at 10:00 a.m. at McDonald's Funeral home in Centerville, Tennessee. Interment will take place at Woodlawn-Roesch-Patton Cemetery in Nashville.

James Claude Love, age 82 of Centerville, Tennessee passed away on September 9th, 2021, at Centennial Hospital in Nashville. James "Claude" was born in Nashville Tn to Earnest and Sadie Marie Spence Love. He recently worked at Hickman County High School as a custodian, but his favorite job was at Hayward Printing Company in Nashville Tn. James was a kind man. He worked very hard. He enjoyed helping others and never met a stranger. He enjoyed spending time with his kids when he wasn't at work. James was a quiet and patient man who never complained about anything. He had a high tolerance for pain and went to work every day he could. He missed one day of work once because he wanted to watch a football game. He loved all sports. His favorite baseball team was the Braves. He didn't have a favorite football team. He would cheer on the underdog and get so excited when they would win.

James was well liked and had many friends. At school he was called "Mr. James" but referred to himself as "James C. Love". He will be missed dearly by so many friends and family.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his brother Bobby Jo, Bill William, Raymond, and son Troy Lee Love.

Survivors include his wife Lucille Maxine Love. His son Brian Love and 2 daughters Laura & Sherry Love. He also has eleven grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren, two brothers Richard and Walker and one sister Shirley Ferguson, and many friends and extended family members.
