“ I have a special place in my heart that Uncle James has lived for a long time. I chose to light a Rose-colored candle for him because in one of his truck deliveries to Michigan I went to where he was eating lunch and placed a red rose 🌹 on his driver's seat for him. He was always joking around and teasing! I'll miss him dearly, but am happy he's healthy and happy with our Lord ❤️

“ My husband Don Mullins and James were cousins but grew into being brothers. They always helped each other as well as our families and were always there for each other in every way in life and now in death. I'm sure they are greeting each other with a brotherly hug in heaven. Much ❤️ Love
