“ To Craig's Family-- So sorry to hear of Craig's passing away. I knew he had fought cancer for some time. I am Craig's cousin, my mother was a niece to his Daddy, James.
I hadn't seen Craig since he was a young boy at my Uncle Frank Leverette's home.
Even though he and I lived in the same county, our paths never crossed; but I do think he looked so my like his Daddy, James.
Through Craig's neighbor, Gary Hanes, I heard about Craig's cancer. I told Gary that's my cousin, and he said Craig was sure a hard worker. His Daddy James was a half-uncle to my mother Louise Leverette Warden.
May God be with you all during your time of loss and grieving, our prayers are that God will comfort you all too. Sincerely, Cousin Margaret Warden Jenkins and husband, Wilson Jenkins.

“ Our hearts are broken for Craig's family and we are praying for peace and comfort for each of them. I grew up with Craig, Pam and Glenna and our parents spent may weekends playing cards while we were outside running around playing or just goofing off. Craig was a hard working, good man and will be missed by many...RIP Craig

“ Dearest family, I am so sorry to hear of Craig's passing. All my prayers go out to all of his family. I remember that I was 12 when he was born and he was my favorite cousin. Loved him lots. We always loved to come back to Tennessee and have a campfire, food down around the creek, and going on a hayride. Loved his mama and grandmother too. GOD BLESS and keep you in his arms.
