“ I cannot remember a time in my life when Janie and her sister weren't a part of my life. By that I mean they are gold threads in the tapestry of my life. Janie was a hard worker. Always cheerful. Always. Many times I spent at her sister in love, Judy's home, where we always ended up at Janie and Wayne's home. Janie was a humble woman.

Cindy, your mother's memory will always be within your heart and mind. The pain is real. It will take a while to process it all, but, in time you will be able to control the pain. Thank you for sharing your son in her life.
