“ Dear Clyde and Family, What an amazing Labor of Love that you all have just completed. You all provided the very best care right up to the end and Ms. Jean would have been able to say "that is our glass" if she were not in the right place at the right time. God loves servants and you are one. May the God who loves the broken hearted now begin the process of healing your hearts as you travel on a grief journey for a ways. Get ready for the blessings which He will send in the form of His peace and comfort. Remember to remember and tell the amazing stories of life and love and travel and adventure. That is how to navigate a grief journey. You all are a wonderful family and may the Lord bless you and keep you and may His face shine upon you and may He be gracious unto you.
