“ I don't have as many pictures as I do memories, but I think one of my favorite memories is when Jerry found out that I was dating his brother he said, “Well I guess this means I can't flirt with you anymore.”

Jerry always was just an absolute gentleman, a smart aleck and a leader. He loved his sons so much and was just so proud of them. Everything he did was for his boys. This is just a tough loss and will be forever loved and missed here on Earth.

“ *Too the Adair family:
Earl and I certainly have a lot of memories about Jerry. Along with Jerry was always Jimmy. When you saw the one the other was not far behind. We had a lot of respect for Jerry and Jimmy. Both made life on the football field a lot easier for us coaches at Santa Fe Catholic. Our condolences to Jerrys family. Our thoughts and prayers to the Adair family.*

“ Just a flock of Eagle Scouts hanging out together! This was a really awesome day...So proud of Jerry and Derrick. Jerry spent so much of his free time working with the Boy Scouts and teaching young men how to “Be Prepared”.

“ I first met Jerry when our boys were in Kindergarten and they had become fast friends. I had no idea at the time what an influence you would have on my sons' lives and what a good friend you would end up being to Matt and I. We had some many great memories camping with the cubscouts. You always would find something to make fun of me about but I loved your sarcasm. Then when it was time for my boys to choose a boy scout troop there was never a question. They loved you and couldn't imagine going any where else but your troop 285. If I were to describe Jerry in one statement it would be "he showed up". He showed up every Monday night (for the past I dont even know how many years ) to teach these young men of troop 285 what it was to be a man. He taught them how to cook, start a fire, tie one million different types of knots, fish, commit to being a good friend, and so many other things I can't even list them all. Jerry showed up every camp out. Jerry showed up every Eagle ceremony. Jerry showed up if you needed him. We are going to miss you so much Jerry. One thing is for sure you will never be forgotten. You have left an ever lasting mark on all the boys lives that came through your troop. We are going to miss you so much.

“If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader.”

-John Quincy Adams

Mr. Adair was the leader for Troop 285 were my son was blessed to be under his leadership. Mr. Adair was an Eagle Scout and inspired countless of scouts to follow his footsteps. He teach my son to do more as a citizen, learn more to be prepared to navigate an uncertain world and dream to be an Eagle Scout. Thank you Mr. Adair.
