“ I went to his church to visit. From the pulpit, he called me out saying I thought I was a celebrity because I was on the radio but I was always mean to him! I know he loved me and I hope he knew I loved him and Nancy. He will be missed.

I met brother Jerry and when I worked at Patton's Park market in the '90s. I had asked him some questions about church. At the time I was a member of New Hope Baptist Church. I had stopped going there because I felt that the church was too much into politics and not the holy Spirit not God not the thought not the son. I told him I was disenchanted with churches and didn't know if I'd ever go back to one. He invited me to Wrigley Baptist Church and told me that everyone there were the nicest people that I would ever want to meet. I told him I would come and visit him sometime. I didn't go to visit him until 2003. I was just finishing up chemo and was just getting my strength back. I have one or two chemo sessions to go before I was done. The first time that I went to Wrigley Baptist Church I felt the holy Spirit tell me you are home. I went to the front of the church and told brother Jerry I would like to be a member of Wrigley Baptist Church. I was voted in and was a member there until something happened in brother Jerry had to leave Wrigley Baptist Church. My husband and I followed brother Jerry and Miss Nancy. We started a little small church which just a few people at Pizza junction. It might have been small but it was mighty. Brother Jerry I will miss you so much. I loved you so much. And I love your wife Miss Nancy I feel like she's one of my best friends. I hope you and Jay have a good time walking and talking on the streets of gold. You will be missed. Love Mary

“ Mr. Milam was my bus driver for all 12 years of school. I loved and respected him because he allowed us kids to have fun, but yet, he kept serious law and order on the bus. I am so sorry to his family for your loss. Kathy Gossett Scott

“ Went to wrigley baptist church for years. Jerry was was my preacher. He always referenced the verse in mathew. He always said when he passes he said, how joyous it will be when the lord says to him . Job well done faithful servant. And would smile. Loved him so much as a pastor, and friend. My son reminded me of that this morning.
