

Jessie Lee Harris

June 16, 1929 - September 28, 2019

Jessie Lee Harris was born on June 16, 1929, in Hickman County, and passed away on September 28, 2019, in Centerville. She was 90 years old.

She was the daughter of the late Samuel Edward Petty and Ruby Pearl Nash Petty.

She was also preceded by her daughter Theenie Gianakos Rodgers and her siblings Eddie Petty, Kathleen Petty, Betty Jean Wright, and Marie Petty Tune.

She is survived by her daughters Judy Morgan (Elton), Sharon "Sherry" Bass, and Amy Schortgen Brown (Dale). Sisters Patricia and Brenda (Raymond). Brother Joe Petty (Kyra). She was also loved by many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

She worked mainly in a factory setting at various places. This included Genesco, Southern Sports, and Georgia Boots to name a few. She liked to listen to music, especially if it was sang by her late husband Henry. She also loved to watch baseball. Her favorite team was the Atlanta Braves.

Jessie was a devoted daily prayer warrior. She cared deeply about so many and lifted their names up in prayer routinely. Along with this, she studied the Bible and had personal devotions regularly. She attended services and was a member of the First Baptist Church in Centerville.

Dr. Jim Chatham and Brother Jerry Foust will officiate services.
