“ 36 Years of Good memories of you , You always worried about taken care of your family , and always wanted to help others, You loved life , and always ready to go hit the scratch off tickets, We will always remember what joy you got out of riding in your car and sing to your favorite song! Robert remembers so much more he feels like part of him is gone . You always encouraged people to do what was set out for them to do , and if you could help you did. You will always be a Big part of us ! and the Great Memories we shared . Thanks and we will see you again one day Rest in peace .
