

Joy Kathleen Brower

March 21, 1942 - December 21, 2021

Mrs. Joy Kathleen "Kathi" Brower, of Hohenwald, TN, passed away on Tuesday, December 21 at the age of 79. She was born on March 21, 1942, in Waretown, N.J. to the late Walter Clifford Eayre & Thelma Sprague Eayre. Kathi was sweet and kind, when she would catch your gaze across the room she would sneak a wink. She always made her son-in-laws feel like part of the family. She was a teacher, choir member, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. Over the years, she worked as a telephone operator, taught home economics, worked at the Lewis County Public Library, taught GED classes at the vocational school, was a substitute teacher at Lewis County Elementary School, taught Sunday School and Vacation Bible School and volunteered at the local food bank. She sang in the Hohenwald First UMC choir for over 40 years. She was a voracious reader and loved reading to her kids and grandkids, She also enjoyed cruising and trying new foods, especially seafood. She loved to cook and trade recipes.

Mrs. Brower is survived by Daughter Beth (Robert) Foerster of Singers Glen, Virginia, Daughter Melissa (Danny) Tyree of Lewisburg, TN & Amanda (Michael) Kelley of Hohenwald, TN, Sister Karen McWade of Easley, South Carolina, and 3 grandchildren. She is preceded in death in addition to her parents by husband Richard Allen Brower.

Visitation will be held on Tuesday, December 28 from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM at Hohenwald First United Methodist Church with funeral services beginning at 2:00 PM. Burial will follow in the Lewis County Memorial Gardens.
