

Joyce Faye Chandler

April 15, 1936 - March 16, 2024

Joyce Faye Chandler passed away peacefully on March 16, 2024, in her home in Hohenwald, Tennessee with her loving husband by her side after a meaningful life filled with love, laughter and purpose.

Forever steadfast to what mattered to her most, she spent her final moments surrounded by her family. Faye was born on April 15, 1936, in Hohenwald, Tennessee to Tommy and Bitha Simmons Bullion. She stole Paul Chandler's heart when he saw her in a polka-dot dress while in grade school. Their love story lasted over 68 years of marriage with the help of Paul's motto to Faye being "If it suits you, it suits me." Faye was always by his side whether it be stationed abroad at a Navy base in Italy, building houses, running the grocery, furniture, and antique stores, or traveling to all 50 states.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Tommy and Bitha Bullion, her sister, Willie Anne Anderson, and brother Vernon "Buddy" Bullion. She is survived by her husband, Paul Chandler, who was the most devoted, loving, compassionate and patient caregiver during the last few years of her life, and her two children: Cindy Morrow (Rick) and Seth Chandler (Ashley). One of her most beloved roles was as a grandmother and great-grandmother known as "Granny Faye" to her 7 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

“ Oh my goodness....what can I say about such an outstanding lady. She was my very own sister-in-law and there is nothing she would not do for me. I loved her dearly and she was the best at everything. Especially, a good wife to my beloved brother, Paul and an amazing mom and grandmother. May our Heavenly Father give peace and comfort to Paul, Cindy, Seth and the rest of the family. Heaven rejoices and welcomes our Faye.

I remember Faye as a loving friend from the first time I was engulfed in her heart warming smile and love and compassion for others. Such a lovely Christian lady I have been blessed to know and love along with her precious family. She faithfully gave so much care for her aging parents with such love and compassion. She will be loved and missed here... by all of us for now... but have no doubt of her home in heaven for her faithfulness! My love and condolences to all Paul, Cindy, Seth and all of the family.

“ Faye was a school mate of mine. There are so many memories of her and her exuberant personality. I remember her "always" smile, her energy for everything including being a drummer in the band, and her motto when we graduated, "I leave nothing but my tracks". For as long as I can remember since then every time I talked with her she told me how smart and how pretty I was. No one else ever told me that. I loved her and miss her so much. Annette
