thank you so much Judy for coming into my life and becoming one of my close friends and always smiling that smile at the little simple things. I will always cherish your hugs, your smiles and those words "I love you" I loved you like family and my heart breaks for your family and your wonderful husband Billy that was always by your side making sure he was there for you at any time you would need him. So glad you finally went out with him and finally married him. Beautiful couple for sure. I will miss you tremendously. I love you but God needed one of his special angels next to him. Prayers for Billy and that beautiful family you loved so much.
