She is also survived by four children: Larry (Janet) Rogers of Murfreesboro, Tennessee; David (Alison) Rogers of Franklin, Tennessee; Susan (Dwayne) Harber of Smyrna, Tennessee; and Emily (Lowrie) Webber of Brentwood, Tennessee. She was a beloved grandmother to Carson (Lindsey) Rogers, Rachel (Matthew) Rose, Lauren Rogers, Rebecca (Drew) Bracey, Katherine Harber, Dr. Michael Harber, Olivia Webber, and Grant Webber. She was also blessed with two great-granddaughters, Lila Bracey and Rosalyn Bracey. Judy was predeceased by Paul Rogers, her husband of 48 years.

She attended Smyrna High where she graduated as salutatorian and then attended David Lipscomb College. She was primarily a homemaker. She was baptized in the Stones River as a young girl and was a member of Old Jefferson Church of Christ where she met Paul at age 16. They were married in 1955 and moved to Centerville in 1956 where she lived for 66 years. She loved her church, her community, and especially enjoyed giving away her famous sourdough bread.

“ We don't know the family at all but we bought the Roger's' farm. I just wanted to share my condolences, albeit late. We love everything here that was created by Paul & Judy. This place feels so special and after learning more about the couple, we now understand why. Thank you for trusting us to be the next caretakers of what we have named Eden Hill Farm.

“ Our heartfelt sympathy to the whole family in the loss of this great and wonderful lady. As most of you know, Paul and Judy were my "friends of a lifetime." I spent many wonderful hours with them throughout the years. It is our "living hope" that we can spend eternity with them in heaven.

“ Larry, David, Susan and Emily, our prayers are with you. Your Mom was one of the kindest, gentle spirits I've known in all my life. I think of your Dad so often (daily it seems), and always loved talking with your Mom whenever we'd see her when we'd come back home. What a blessing your parents were to so many people. God bless all of you...
