“ He was my cousin, but he was more like my brother in every way, above all else he was my friend. We grew up climbing trees, playing video games, and bickering like siblings for years and years. We even shared a birthday! Him two years younger than me. But we'd celebrate together when we were young. I miss you and I wish you could come back to me, but I will forever celebrate your birth and life for the rest of mine until I see you again.

“ Justin is the love of my life, my fiancé, and a daddy to our 10 month old little girl Raelynn. If you knew him, you know how much he loved us, especially Raelynn he would nonstop talk about her. He stayed wearing his “daddy” shirt, loved the Florida Gators, and loved music. His smile was so contagious, he’d do anything for anyone. He left this earth too soon. But I know he’s smiling in heaven watching over me and his little girl.
