

Kay Frances Cagle

January 7, 1942 - July 9, 2021

Kay Frances DePriest Cagle was born on January 7, 1942, in Centerville, and passed away on July 9, 2021, at her home in Centerville. She was 79 years old.

She is the daughter of the late John Edwin DePriest and Anna Lorraine Rochelle DePriest.

She is survived by her husband Tommy Gene Cagle of Centerville. Daughters Tammy (Michael) Coalson of Bon Aqua and Beth (Jerry) Edwards of Centerville. Son Ed (Venita) Cagle of Thompson Station. Sister Diane (Wayne) Larson of Bowling Green, Kentucky. Grandchildren Kyle Rudolph, Nathan Coalson, and Hunter Rudolph. Along with many other relatives, friends, and loved ones.

She was a member at Faith Baptist Church, and formerly attended the Fairfield Baptist Church.

In her working life, she worked for the State of Tennessee in the title division, taught and played piano, and was a mother and homemaker.

Mrs. Kay and Mr. Tommy were married for 57 years, September would have made 58. She and he were nearly inseparable in that span. Where one was you would see the other. Tommy says that she was not only his wife but also his buddy.

Her children all agree that if you knew Mrs. Kay, then you knew their greatest hero! She was the heartbeat of the family! A great inspiration to many, and an incredible woman of God! She never complained even though this world was not kind to her, was tough as nails, always had a cheer in her heart and a smile on her face! If you were needing help, she would help or she would volunteer someone else to help you. She was a worrier for all those she met, not for what you had or didn't have on this earth, but for each person's walk with the Lord. Her focus was always on the Lord and because of that her family can rejoice and praise God in this sad time. She was truly one of a kind.

“ Kay introduced herself to me years ago--I believe we met at the Corner Cafe in Lyles...a caring heart that shared the burdens of others in the spirit of, "bear ye one another's burdens," and turned to her faith for others and herself. She was and is a blessing to me.

“ I have had the pleasure of getting to know Kay and Tommy over the last 6 months or so. Tommy is my mom's cousin. I called Tommy to learn about the Cagle ancestry. Speaker phone was always on while Kay was in the background filling in the blanks. Our conversations quite often lead to Bible discussions. I am sorry that I didn't get to meet Kay in person. ~ Cindy Stedman Waskul

“ I am so thankful for the life and love of my in-laws, Kay & Tommy Cagle. They are an inspiration to me, and to so many, of how to live a life of service and commitment. There is no way to measure how much we love Kay and how much we will miss her. But we rejoice greatly that she is now in Heaven and her body has been made whole. And we will see her again! And spend all eternity together with her, and with Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Until then, I know she is cheering us all on from the other side of Heaven.
