“Kaye was the guidance counselor at high school, every single time i saw her, she had a big mug of coffee in 1 hand.-- She advised me not to attend college.

“Kaye was such a wonderful woman. We found out we were cousins on our Maddox line, but could not prove the link for the DAR. She had proven our 4th great grandfather Elisha Darden for the Daughters of the American Revolution. We had some great conversations about family history. Her wonderful personality and kindness will truly be missed.

Your cousin,
Lois Gardner Sergent

“ Miss Maddox was my “Cheerleader Mom”. She was supportive of me in high school and until now. I believe I was first introduced to sausage balls at a cheerleader slumber party at her house. Ever since then I fondly think of her and good times while making those special treats. Thank you Miss Maddox for loving us and taking care of us.

“ Miss Maddox was my cheerleading coach at Hickman County High School for four years, and I share many wonderful memories of which she is a part. Every year she would host a cheerleader slumber party at her house and fix her amazing sausage balls! We had SO MUCH fun at those! I can only imagine how loud we were and how much we disturbed the peace at her home! 😭 But she was right in the middle of it laughing with us and poking fun, too. She was also our guidance counselor and helped guide us through the travails of college admissions and scholarships. I thank you, Miss Maddox, for loving us, and I will never forget you.
