

Kenneth Lee Wayne Elderkin

May 1, 1945 - August 15, 2020

Kenneth Lee Wayne Elderkin, of Centerville, was born May 1, 1945, in Salem, Oregon, to the late John Elderkin and Mildred Clair Neill and died August 15, 2020, at the age of 75 years.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Elderkin was preceded in death by his wife Carol Dungan Elderkin and daughter Renee Lynn Yates.

Mr. Elderkin is survived by daughter Kristina (Daniel) Willis of Lyles, sister Fran Roper of Georgia, brother Rick Townsend of Michigan, step-sons John, James, and Kenny, step-daughters Nikki and Sue, 11 grandchildren and several step-grandchildren.

Mr. Elderkin was a veteran of the United States Army.

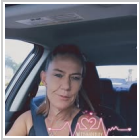

At this time no services are scheduled.

Tribute Wall

SR

“ Kenneth would come to the Muddy Duck frequently before covid hit. I loved talking with him and occasionally enjoying a meal with him. And certainly appreciate his service to our country. He will be missed. 🇺🇸

Sharon Rogers - August 24, 2020 at 11:28 AM

“ We love you Dad!! Thank you for all my lessons in life! Daddys hands!! Your memories will be carried on through your children to your grandchildren.

Sue Allen - August 21, 2020 at 02:31 PM

RM

“ To his family, I do not know him or his family but I want to say I am so grateful he served America. My condolences and prayers.

Reba McFarlin - August 18, 2020 at 11:00 AM

KE

Thank u for your kind words!

Kris Elderkin - August 21, 2020 at 11:53 AM