“ Uncle Ken you will be greatly missed by your PH family. From the younger ones in the family remembering you as the magic man. I will always cherish the painting you gave me that's on the wall along with all the great memories. Everytime I play spider solitaire I will think of you since you talked me into down loading it when I came for a visit. Thank you for all the love you shared.

“ Oh Aunt Cindy, I am so sorry.. Uncle Ken was the life of the party, always joking around, doing magical tricks.. I remember one time on Rabidue Rd he made spaghetti and corn bread.. I remember Uncle Ken having a glass of milk and crumbing his corn bread up in his milk.. isn't it funny on what we remember from so long ago.. RIP Uncle Ken.. love you
