“ To the Scott & Miley Family, no one should experience this type of loss. I know that this loss continues to hurt in your hearts. Let me share something that is comforting, 2 Corinthians 1:3-7, we all are suffering some type of tribulation with in our hearts but the God of comfort is there to help us get through the difficult moments that we have. And we have this hope that in the future we will reunite with those who are asleep in death (John 5:28-29), and we will no longer have the feeling of sadness and loneliness, Revelations 21:4 God say “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” This is something I too look forward to see. My sincere condolences.

“ Scott, Suzi, and Keller,

We were shocked to hear the news. I cannot imagine what you are feeling, at this time. There are no comforting words that will suffice; only God can handle something of this magnitude. We all have wonderful memories of Kolton, growing up. We love you and wish we could be there with you. Lot's of sadness here among all your friends in Washington Parish.

“ Native American Prayer

*I give you this one thought to keep -----
I am with you still-----I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.*

*When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush of quite birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.*

*Do not think of me as gone -----
I am with you still ---- in each new dawn.*

Thank you so much for sharing Kolton with us. Our entire family, especially Bryan, is better for having loved him.
