“ Larry was my friend a long time.He will really be missed. He had a big heart and he was talented.We had lots of good times together...some of them just the two of us pickin' and singing, some of them on stage at various venues, and some at the festivals. His door was always open and he was ready to play anytime. He was my buddy, and he was my friend. There will not soon be anyone like him again.He was unique. He was a good man. God Bless you in your time of grief Alma, Tony and family.I'm sure he's in an angel band somewhere.
