“ Brother L C was a wonderful man and he and Ms Bonnie set a great example for all of us at the Aetna Church of Christ when we were kids. He baptized us and did most of my families funerals. He was always there for all of us. As kids we loved staying on the farm and going to the creek. Heaven has gained another angel. Prayers to his entire family and thank you for sharing him with us.

“ So sorry Danny and family for your loss. He was one of the last Sisco cousins.. When I would tell him “that’s the Sisco in you” , he would throw back his head and give that big laugh. All the years we went down dry branch to Jane’s granddad and grandmother Quillen’s house we would see Allie on the porch and then in the last several years, LC. Their family lived in the Salem area for over 100 yrs. They had large families and grew up as cousins and friends. Their legacy and memory will live on in all of us. Morn his loss but celebrate his long good life and influence Love.
