“ Gail and Reba, I just heard of your mother's death a few minutes ago. I can't tell you how very sorry I am. She was a wonderful loving woman and a true Christian. I will always remember her and both the sad times the good times we shared with your family. Lera was always there for us and it is so hard to believe she is now gone. But I know she is in heaven and without pain. Yet it is going to be hard on everyone that knew her not to have her here with us. I know the pain is greatest for her children. She lived for God and her family and her children were her world. I have always said the greatest gift God gave this world was his only son. The second greatest gift was a mothers love. You knew both and were and are so blessed. May God give you the peace that passes all understanding as you deal with this great loss. Again, my heart is breaking for you and I am so very sorry.

“ I'll never forget all the memories I have of u Granny like when Me, Lindsey, and Cynthia use to stay the night with u when we was little and u would wake us up early with the best breakfast anyone could ask for and we will pass the Bible around reading it aloud. Or when u would take a switch to our legs for getting in the creek when we wasn't supposed to. To all the many holiday dinners at your house or to when u and Aunt Carrie Lynn was teaching James how to sew on ur old sewing machine. U will forever be remembered and missed. We love u!!
