

Lester Lee Hinson Jr.

July 28, 1952 - February 9, 2017

Lester Lee Hinson, Jr. was born July 28, 1952 and died February 9, 2017 in Centerville, TN surrounded by his family. He was preceded in death by his wife, Renate (Renee) Stippich Hinson, and parents Lester Hinson, Sr. and Mary Lee Hinson Barber. He is survived by his son, Shawn Lee Hinson; sisters, Lorinda (Shane) Halstead, Linda Hinson, and Debbie (David) Bates; along with a host of other relatives and friends.

Mr. Hinson spent his youth in Centerville followed by 9 years service in the United States Army. He then became a corrections officer with Kirkland Corrections Facility in Columbia, SC from which he retired after 27 years of service. He and his wife lived in Columbia and then Elgin, SC. A memorial service of his life will be held at McDonald Funeral Home in Centerville, TN on Sunday, February 19, 2017. The family will receive friends from 1:30 up until service time at 3:30. Military honors will be presented. Brothers Bill McDonald and Don Hinson will officiate. The family has asked in lieu of flowers that memorial donations be made to the American Cancer Society or the Campground Cemetery Fund in Centerville, TN.

“ Lester played in a band with my three brothers and all the teenagers hung out at our house. He was a funny, talented guy and Bill, Tony and Barry all were great friends with him. I know all the family and spent time with his mother while she lived at Tulipwood. We talked a lot about him and his friendship with them. Love and prayers to all his family.
