

Lestly Charles "LC" Bowen

November 15, 1946 - March 11, 2026

Lestly Charles "LC" Bowen, age 79, of Hohenwald, Tennessee, passed away at his home on March 11, 2026. He was born on Cedar Creek in a corn crib on November 15, 1946, to the late Lester Bowen and Vannie Haynes Bowen, and was later raised in Flatwoods, Tennessee.

LC was a graduate of the Perry County High School Class of 1965. Following graduation, he attended Tennessee Vocational School. On February 21, 1969, he married the love of his life, Wilma Lomax Bowen. Their marriage was a devoted and loving union that lasted 57 years, a life they built together centered on faith, family, and hard work.

LC proudly served his country as a member of the Tennessee National Guard for 13 years. He worked at DANA Corporation for six years and later worked with Wallace Poore repairing televisions. In 1977, he ventured out on his own and opened Bowen TV. The business later expanded and became Bowen Home Center, where he sold home furniture, appliances, and televisions. This year would have marked 49 years of business, a testament to his dedication and commitment to serving his community.

LC was a forward thinker and entrepreneur. He was among the first in the area to sell and service large satellite television systems and was also among the first locally to rent movies through a movie club when VCRs first became popular. Known for his knowledge and determination, LC researched everything and made sure he understood how to work on and service every product he sold. Whatever he pursued, he gave it his full effort. His strong work ethic kept him active in his business up until the time of his passing.

Through his years in business, LC developed many lasting friendships and truly enjoyed getting to know the people he served. He often said he had made many good friends through his business and enjoyed getting to know all the people he did business with. He was a wonderful, loving, kind, and giving person.

Above all, LC cherished his family. He especially loved spoiling his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Though he carried many titles in life, his favorite was simply "PA." In his spare time, he enjoyed fishing and spending time gardening.

He is survived by his wife, Wilma Bowen; his son, Bruce Bowen; his daughter, Renae (Greg) Mumaw; his sisters, Brenda (Robert) Treadwell and Peggy French; three grandchildren, Kaci (Ryan) Shanes, Blake (Kaylie) Bowen, and Brayden Mumaw; and three great-grandchildren, Piper and Gentry Shanes and Blaine Bowen, along with many special friends.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sisters, Joyce Dicus, Jewel Powers, and Diane Gay.

Visitation with the family will be held on Friday, March 13, from 10:30 AM until 3:00 PM. Funeral services will begin at 3:00 PM, with burial to immediately follow in Swiss Cemetery.

McDonald Funeral Home is honored to be serving the Bowen family.

“ LC was one of the nicest and compassionate gentlemen I have ever met. I appreciated him and his family and pray that our Lord keep his arms around them and heals the pain of his passing. He built a wonderful family and loved all his friends. He and his family treated their customers with dignity and respect no matter if they were rich or poor. I will truly miss him and the talks we had. I know he is so happy and is in the arms of God.
