“ Can't imagine life will no longer be the same with this lady gone. She was truly one of a kind. Ive known Lisa an family since i moved to hohewald years ago. She'd give you the shirt off her back. Her an i become friends an she was a true blessing. I worked with her at Melbasdairy dip good bit was never a dual moment. We laughed and we worked had a ball. One time in particular Lisa myself an a bunch more from here went on a bus to tunica had a ball i didn't have time to cash my winnings out so i toted a coffee can full of nickles all the way back. Went to Melbas next morning to work an all my customer's were leaving nickles as tips. Funny thing Lisa got to every one first told them i got drunk an was dancing on tables for nickles in Tunica...we laughed about that forever. Will never forget...sorry for your loss Denis an Dana Angie. She will be missed. Love yall

“ Lisa was the sweetest lady, she is the one who introduced me to my husband. She wouldn't have it until I went and meet him, I'm forever grateful that she insisted on me meeting him. She will be truly missed by all who loved her.
