“ I got to know Lisa while working at school in the Special Needs class. I have so many memories with her in school and out of school. The funniest one is the night we were babysitting a friend of ours 2 little boys and we had put them to bed and and it was about 11:00 and we saw a car come up the hill and then someone started to try to open the door. It scared us so bad that we hid in a small bathroom. And we forgot to grab the phones which were in the living room so we couldn't call the cops or call anyone for help. They got into the house and started moving around and we were freaking out. They finally yelled out to us and we came out. It was the boys grandparents that no one knew you were coming to spend the night from Dickson. We felt like dummies but we laughed about that for a long time. I love you Lisa and I will never forget you. 💔😭
