“Lois and Mr. Raines moved to Summerville, Ga in 1960, I think, for Mr. Raines to become the High School Band Director. I was always impressed with their intentional lives. They were very concerned in caring for Pam and Kip and teaching them to know and love God. Lois was not afraid to stand up for her Lord and His word. Her memories of those years in Summerville and the people there were amazing. I was blessed to have been in the band for the years that Mr. Raines was our director and to worship with the family at the South Commerce Street church of Christ. They were both very strong influences in my life. I talked with Lois occasionally and learned all about the grandchildren. May God richly bless her family.

“I remember Sally and my father (Robert Earl Atkinson) always being very close, her visits along with her family always seemed exciting. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family.
