“ Loyce and Pete were my first bosses' I ever had. She had a smile and laugh that would light up a room but when she was having a bad day she would go straight to her office and not say a word. At first, I wondered if she was mad at me but she wasn't. Boy ,I was glad. She would help us employees sometimes by giving us breaks. She was a good boss along with her husband. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. Prayers for her son Jerry and sister Joyce.

“ I remember going to Loyce and Pete's grocery store for many years. They were always laughing and cutting up with all their employees and customers. Loyce always had a cute little laugh and grin on her face. She always had something funny to say and worked hard to serve her customers!
