“ I served as Lynn's pastor for nine years. He was a true friend. Lynn and I would visit one another every Sunday morning before I left my office at Centerville UMC to drive over to Shipp's Bend UMC for an earlier service. Lynn was responsible for unlocking the doors of the church, making sure lights were on, and everything was up and running for Sunday School and worship. He was the most dependable person I have ever been around. Even when he knew he would not be there on a certain Sunday, he would make sure that I knew he would be absent. I cherish all the wonderful memories of this man. The world was a better place because of Lynn. Well done, good and faithful servant.

He was a very kind man who came to Fish Camp almost every Saturday when I worked there. Without fail he would order 1/2 fillet, baked potato- no sour cream, no slaw, and 1/2 cup of white beans with a sweet tea. He was always smiling and really left an impression on me.
