“ What a wonderfully strong role model for our family. I know my mom really looked up to her for her willingness to be confidently independent. Aunt Mag will be missed by all who loved her.

“ I have many fond childhood memories of my Aunt Madeline. Although it has been many years, I can still remember visiting her and Uncle Gil at their home in St Clair Shores, Michigan. My Mom would take us there often since we lived close by. Sweet Uncle Gil was always ready with a silly joke or two and Aunt Madeline would greet us with the biggest and kiss. She was strong, tough, gentle and kind all at the same time. She was generous and giving to anyone in need. My Mom would often say that I got my love for animals from my Aunt Madeline...being compared to her in that way always made me smile...and it still does. Eternal Rest Grant Unto Her Oh Lord. May She Be With You This Day In Paradise! Love always, Pam La Rue “ Uncle Pete: Sorry for your loss.

She is in good company with God & her other family members. I never met Madeline but have heard so much about her through Pam's memories. She sounded like a really wonderful person. My condolences to the whole family.
