“ Malcom was a resident in my place of work, i created a true bond with him as he was always so sweet and full of kind words to spread. He often spoke about god and his wife expressing his love for both. He had a beautiful soul and never left anyone without a smile(unless we didn't have his coffee). I am truly thankful I had the opportunity to care for such a gentleman that cared just as much equally back. He will and always will be missed.
