

Marian Joyce Aldrich

November 21, 1932 - July 13, 2017

Joyce was born in Paducah, KY to Alice and Loren Frasier. When she was ten years old, she and her parents moved to Battle Creek, MI. There, she attended Battle Creek Academy and graduated from Battle Creek Central High School.

On December 2, 1951, Joyce married Robert (Bob) Aldrich, her husband of over 65 years, whom she met at the Battle Creek Tabernacle. Their daughter, Brenda Kay, and her husband David Albrecht have two sons, Thomas and Christopher.

Joyce was a church pianist for many years and instilled in others a love for the piano. She was a member of the Dorcas Society and also helped with many cooking schools. Reading was a passion of hers, with favorite topics being Bible prophecy and health.

Bob and Brenda are grateful to Joyce for her early transition to a vegetarian diet and for her good cooking. She had a knack for getting just the right combination of seasonings!

One of Joyce's favorite Scriptures is Isaiah 40:31. "They that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint." A hymn that she appreciated was, Jesus Paid it All.

It was Joyce's request that there be no funeral or memorial service after her death. Her family extends heartfelt gratitude to all those who prayed, called, sent cards, visited, brought food or flowers, and helped in many ways while she was still living. To bless others in her memory, please send a donation to Adventist World Radio. Thank You.
