“ My Mom Nina Beth Harvill was Mary Carolyn's Best friend whenever we visited Tennessee we visited with Mary Carolyn I got to know this very special Lady as I grew up and I loved I she talked about her family and how good they were to her especially her Son and granddaughter.

I remember one time my mom and I were going to be in Tennessee for a class reunion and she had invited us to stay with her at her house while we were visiting her she wanted to show us something she was proud of but had already armed her security alarm without thinking she took us into the dining room to show us the item and the alarm went off and scared all of us! she reset it and told the security people we were fine. She was a very vine hostess and Lady I will miss her
