“Mary Frances (Frances, as I called her) became friends back in the mid/late 60's. At the time she was married to Dickie Yates. He and I worked together at Schrader. Frances and Dickie became a part of our group...Marshal Wynns, David Vaughn, Billie Jean Cocke, and as time went by others joined in the group. So many wonderful and fun times we all had together. Marshal and I along with David and Billie eventually married and the friendship continued. So many wonderful AND funny stories of our times together. Marshal and I stood up for Frances and Larry when they married in G'burg. We rejoiced in their union. No, Frances and I did not talk daily, weekly or even monthly but each time we talked it was as if we had only talked the day before. I can truthfully say that Mary Frances Breece, Yates, Welch was one of the most wonderful women to ever have crossed my path....caring, generous, giving and always concerned for her fellow man. I miss you, Frances, but praise God that you are no longer in pain. Surely He has a seat for you in heaven.

“ She & my dad had been married for over 27 years. She from the very beginning always was so thoughtful & made sure that we had many special family memories. She spoiled my sweet dad rotten & took great care of him. Things will never be the same. She is already so greatly missed!#TRULYASPECIALLADY #ILOVEYOUMARYIWILLNEVERFORGETYOU##

“ It's hard to believe that my Mom Virginia and her brothers Willis and Kennith along with sisters Cora, Jessie, Fannie, Stella and their spouses are gone. Now my cousin Mary Francis. My cousins, especially Mary have all played a part in the Gaffords lives. I and my sisters and brothers are so blessed to be part of a great clan like the Coates family. I will always be proud to call Mary Francis Cousin. Mary was always there to take care of her Dad and Mom when they needed her the most. She made many sacrifices to help her Mom in the last days of her Moms life as all of my cousins have done for their parents. It's that Coates upbringing . That's what makes all of my cousins special. We never forgot our parents and Cousins in times of need.

Mary we will miss you. God has truly blessed me and my family for your presence.
