“ When I was a young girl, I didn't smile a lot. Aunt Pearl could always get a smile from me. She would say, "You have such a pretty smile. It lights up your eyes and face and you should do it more." She had a way of making me feel special, and I loved her for that. I have not seen her since I left home in 1966, but I will always remember her special smile and warmth. “ The best times, of course, is seeing her all my life ever since I was a little kid. She gave me and the other grandchildren and great grandchildren cookies. I always loved her house. She will be missed dearly. Love you granny, Love, Travis Johnston
