“ Dear Cousins,
I imagine there's nothing worse to go through than the loss of your mother. Your mom was truly one of the most open and giving women that I have ever known. I'm so thankful for all of the summer visits we shared while we were growing up, laughing with Aunt Maude and having fun with you cousins. I consider myself very blessed that I was able to spend that time with her and you all. Having known her, I will go through this life with a bigger heart from the life lessons of her kindness and love for everyone she met. Especially for the ones that were down on their luck, lonely and in need of her loving attention. Your mom, my aunt Maude, was truly a beautiful person. I love her and all of you. Aunt Maude, I'll meet you in heaven, one day soon.

Proverbs 31:10, 20, 25, 26, 28-31.

*Your loving Niece,

“ My sincere condolences in your loss and heaven's gain. Some of us are better people for having known Maude. She loved people and was loved in return. I know God welcomed her with open arms.
