

Maynor Beal Meador

September 8, 1936 - November 22, 2016

Maynor Beal Meador was born on September 8, 1936 and passed away on November 22, 2016 at the age of 80. He was the son of the late Elbert and Emma Tommie Primm Meador. He was also preceded in death by his sister Mary Nell Dickens.

He is survived by his wife Barbara Sue Rivers Meador. Sister-in-law Janie Choate. Niece Stacy LaRue. As well as a host of other relatives, friends and loved ones.

Maynor grew up on Hassel Creek, and loved to tell people about it, and the experiences that he had such as attending school at Totty's Bend where he kept a wood stove going for heat in the winter, and his hard work as a farm hand (hauling hay, working cattle and putting in and mending fences). He lived his adult life on Grays Bend here in Centerville, TN. He never met a stranger and loved to talk about the things that he loved in life including home grown food, music, church and his beloved wife Barbara. Maynor and Barbara enjoyed going places such as church, out to eat, the Grand Ole Opry, vacations to beaches and mountains, and to Disney World.

“ The day after I moved to Centerville, I met Mr. Meador in church. I'd never heard the name Maynard before, so when he shook my hand and introduced himself as Maynard Beal, I thought he said Mayor Bill. I told my daughter, "I guess the mayor goes to our new church". Later someone said I was confused. Maybe not. I never walked past him without being offered a handshake and a smile. Not knowing anyone, he and his sweet wife offered us a seat next to them and made us feel so welcome. Rest in Peace, Mayor Bill.
