

Mildred Sue Rodgers

September 28, 1925 - April 24, 2017

A funeral service for Mildred Sue Rodgers, age 91 of Hampshire will be held at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 26, 2017 from the chapel of McDonald Funeral Home with Drew Brewer officiating. Interment will follow in the Milan Cemetery. The family will receive friends on Tuesday from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. Mrs. Rodgers died Monday, April 24, 2017 at Signature Healthcare of Columbia.

A native of Cane Creek in Perry County, Mildred was the daughter of the late Orville T. and Melissa Hinson Bates. Her family described her as feisty and stylish, loving her clothes and jewelry. She was married to and much loved by Mr. William Rodgers for 63 years. During World War II she made airplane bomb chutes over in Memphis. She got to travel the world with Mr. Rodgers who served in our nation's Air Force. They got to live in Tripoli, Italy, B.C. Canada, Morocco and Georgia. The family stated, "That's a lot of traveling for a girl from Cane Creek".

Although she worked some outside the home, she was proud to consider herself a homemaker. She was a member of the United Methodist church. She loved mowing and tending to her yard and flowers.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her sisters; Ora Baxter, Lorene Cowan, Helen Cotham, and Laverne Goodman.

Survivors include her husband, William Rodgers of Hampshire, TN and several nieces and nephews.
